INSTITUTIONAL DISTINCTIVENESS

Criterion 7.3 – Institutional Distinctiveness

Criterion 7.3.1

Provide the details of the performance of the institution in one area distinctive to its vision, priority and thrust.

Dyal Singh College, Karnal is a premier multi faculty co-educational institution in the state of Haryana. The college was established in 1910 in Lahore as a result of the munificence and philanthropic zeal of the illustrious founder Sardar Dyal Singh Majithia, who bequeathed his enormous property to three trusts – one for the establishment of a first grade college in Lahore, second for the establishment of a modern library and third for running of a newspaper. After the partition the college was re-established in Karnal on September 16, 1949 by the untiring efforts of Dewan Anand Kumar. From the very onset the college has catered to the educational needs of the youth of this area. It has been a worthwhile academic institution to nurture thousands of young men and women between Ludhiana and Delhi. Due to the continuous efforts of our worthy trustees, what started as a single institution to gather and spread 'the Wisdom of the East and the West' has now blossomed into a multifaceted chain of institutions.
